

Uniform Guidelines for Winter Season 2008-2009

Texoma Christian School

Leggings and Tights: Many of the girls in the upper school have asked if leggings and tights are acceptable as part of the TCS uniform. The administration has adjusted the uniform policy and white and black solid color (no lace) leggings and tights are acceptable to wear under the uniform skirts or skorts or denim skirts on Fridays. Wearing leggings or tights will not change the length of the skirts. Jumper, skirt and skort lengths should not be shorter than 3-4 inches from the floor when kneeling.

Outerwear: TCS, Mills, or Land's End, front-zipped, black or red fleece-lined jackets, TCS sweatshirts and TCS issued letter jackets are acceptable outerwear but should not be worn habitually in the classroom. Only TCS approved hoodies will be allowed to be worn on campus. Name brand hoodies such as American Eagle or Nike, or college or team sport favorites will no longer be acceptable. In the Upper School, heavy coats (non-TCS) should only be worn outside and for the purpose of protecting the student from rain, snow or freezing temperatures.

Sweaters: Sweaters should follow the same guidelines as those implemented for outerwear. Sweaters should only be red, black or white. Gray sweaters are not acceptable.

Turtlenecks: All red, white, or black turtleneck shirts that are visible from the waist up must display a TCS logo (sewn-on patch or embroidery, located on the upper left chest). If red, white, or black turtleneck shirts are worn under a TCS shirt or a sweatshirt, they do not need to display the school logo.

T-shirts worn under polo shirts or any other shirt or sweatshirt can only be red, black, white or gray.

Boots: Last year revisions were made to include black, brown or tan Ugg boots or suede type boots for girls. The boots should not be worn above the knee and should not be distracting in color or style such as fringe, fur, or large tassels. Uniform pants should not be tucked into the boots. Students may not wear combat or military style boots.
